

Lead. Serve. Inspire.

Knights of Columbus | Council 1186

Who we are

- A Catholic brotherhood of men who pray, serve, and grow in faith together.
- Founded in 1882 by Blessed Michael J. McGivney with two million members worldwide; 20,000 strong in Alberta
- Serving Calgary and Sacred Heart Parish since 1907 | Calgary's first Knights of Columbus council and the oldest in Southern Alberta.

What we do at Sacred Heart

- Parish hospitality: annual Stampede Breakfast, Pancake Breakfasts, Parish BBQ with the CWL, funeral support.
- Faith and formation: monthly men's Lectio Divina.
- Eucharistic processions: Knights plan and lead; Host Retreats
- Lenten hospitality: simple suppers after Stations of the Cross
- Family & youth: Keep Christ in Christmas and the Catholic Essay Contest.
- Vocations & parish support: prayer for seminarians and practical help year-round.
- Hands-on help for parish initiatives and events.

Our recent impact

- 2,000+ volunteer hours in the past year.
- $66,000+ in charitable support for parish and community needs.

Why men join

- Become a better Catholic man, Husband, Father, and Leader.
- Grow spiritually with Brothers who keep you steady.
- Serve with purpose that strengthens families and parish life.
- Build real fraternity and develop leadership skills.
- Access member benefits that protect families.

Who can join

- Catholic men, 18 years or older, living the faith in word and deed with integrity and seeking practical ways to serve

While you are here today

- Sign up online now using the QR code or with a Knight on a council laptop. If you prefer not to sign up online, fill a contact card.
- Choose one starter step: attend the next men's Lectio Divina or help at a hospitality event.
- Most men start with 1-2 hours a month and build from there.
